Collect for the Week

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments;
that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever,
we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

A big thank you to all who have contributed so far. Food bank items are still required and can be put in the plastic bins located outside the Vicarage or in St Peter's Church porch. Please contact

Revd Belinda on 0333 0118088 if you have any questions regarding this. The school summer holiday has started and the demands on the food bank are greater than normal, so donations especially welcome at this time.

Collection plate. Our churches may be closed, but they still need to be maintained and insured so that they will be ready for worship when the doors do finally open. Many of you normally support the church by putting money into the collection plate. If you have been saving your money up, could you perhaps now consider paying by standing order? If you would like more information on this method of payment, please contact your church treasurer.

NEWS

Plant Sale A big thank you to Jane Stockdale and Pimperne Gardening Club for organising a sale of Plants outside St Peter's Church last Saturday. Just short of £90 was raised in support of Church funds.

Opening of Churches for Private Prayer. The churches of St Peter, St Nicholas and Holy Trinity are open on Thursday mornings from 10am to Noon. Please follow the guidance posted at the entrances to each Church. This is in line with the current guidance issued by the Government, H&S Executive and CofE. When the Churches are closed our church porches will still be available as Prayer Spaces for private prayer.

place
to pray

If you would like us to pray for someone or a situation, you are welcome to write it down (it can be anonymous), place it in an envelope provided and put it in the basket which can be found in the Church porches of St Peter, Pimperne, Holy Trinity, Stourpaine and St Nicholas, Durweston. I will collect them on Saturday morning. Unfortunately, due to the current restrictions, we are not able to provide pens and paper. Information about our services, morning and evening prayer can be found on our website <http://www.psdbenefice.org.uk>.

Services in Church! Services in church have resumed. There is one service of Holy Communion* at 4.00pm in one of the churches in the benefice except for the first Sunday of the month, when there will also be a BCP service of Holy Communion in Holy Trinity at 8am. The Sunday service rota for August and 6 September can be found on page 6 and on the Website. Services are open to all and everyone across the Benefice.

\ On the 9th August the Service in Church will be Sunday Worship as Belinda is away.*

It is understood that there will be some disappointment that we are not able to offer more in-church services at this time. The guidance from the HSE and Church of England on 'opening church for public worship' runs into pages. We have had to find ways of meeting the guidance while at the same time maintaining a sense that our lovely churches are places where we gather as a community to worship God and to pray.

The completed risk assessment for 'opening churches for worship' can be found on the Benefice website.

If you are thinking of attending a service, please could you consider the following:

- Hymn books, Bibles and service orders have been safely stored away. If you are attending the BCP service, please could you bring a copy of the Prayer Book with you. For other services there will be a take-away service sheet for you to keep.
- Social distancing in church remains at two metres. This means we need to restrict the number of people attending the service. It would be helpful if you could let the appropriate Church Warden know by 7.00pm on Saturday that you would like to attend the service on Sunday.(see over)

St Peter's Church	John Beckford	721318
Holy Trinity Church	Chris Brown	451129
St Nicholas' Church	Lesley Bryning	450102

- You will be asked to wait at the door; the church warden or sides person will direct you to your seat.
- New guidance from the Church of England advises the wearing of face coverings if you are attending a church service.
- At the end of the service, please remain seated until you are asked to leave by the church warden or sides person.
- The toilets at St Peter's and St Nicholas' churches will not be open for use.
- There will be a retiring collection at the end of the service. Please place your gift in the basket as you leave. However, there is high level risk of cross contamination associated with coins and notes. If this is your usual way of giving, could you perhaps now consider paying by standing order? If you would like more information on this method of payment, please contact your church treasurer:

Hymns for Sunday 2nd August 2020

Recorded remotely by the Choral Scholars of St Martin-in-the-Fields in their homes, and edited together.

- 1 Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
 pilgrim through this barren land;
 I am weak, but thou art mighty,
 hold me with thy powerful hand:
 bread of heaven,
 feed me now and evermore.

- 2 Open now the crystal fountain
 whence the healing stream doth flow;
 let the fiery, cloudy pillar
 lead me all my journey through:
 strong deliverer,
 be thou still my strength and shield.

- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan
 bid my anxious fears subside;
 death of death, and hell's destruction,
 land me safe on Canaan's side:
 songs of praises
 I will ever give to thee.

Arglwydd arwain drwy'r anialwch William Williams (1717-1791), tr Peter Williams (1727-1796)

- 1 Sometimes a light surprises
 the Christian while he sings;
 it is the Lord who rises

with healing in his wings:
when comforts are declining,
he grants the soul again
a season of clear shining,
to cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
we sweetly then pursue
the theme of God's salvation,
and find it ever new.
Set free from present sorrow,
we cheerfully can say,
'E'en let the unknown morrow
bring with it what it may':

3 It can bring with it nothing
but he will bear us through;
who gives the lilies clothing
will clothe his people too:
beneath the spreading heavens
no creature but is fed;
and he who feeds the ravens
will give his children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
their wonted fruit should bear,
though all the field should wither,
nor flocks nor herds be there,
yet, God the same abiding,
his praise shall tune my voice;
for, while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

William Cowper (1731-1800)

1 Fill your hearts with joy and gladness,
sing and praise your God and mine!
Great the Lord in love and wisdom,
might and majesty divine!
He who framed the starry heavens knows and names them as they shine!

2 Praise the Lord, his people, praise him!
Wounded souls his comfort know;

those who fear him find his mercies,
peace for pain and joy for woe;
humble hearts are high exalted,
human pride and power laid low.

3 Praise the Lord for times and seasons,
cloud and sunshine, wind and rain;
spring to melt the snows of winter
till the waters flow again;
grass upon the mountain pastures,
golden valleys thick with grain.

4 Fill your hearts with joy and gladness,
peace and plenty crown your days;
love his laws, declare his judgments,
walk in all his words and ways;
he the Lord and we his children:
praise the Lord, all people, praise!

Timothy Dudley-Smith (b.1926) from Psalm 147 © administered by Oxford University Press in Europe (including UK and Ireland) and Africa, and by Hope Publishing Company in all other territories (including USA)

1 For the fruits of his creation, thanks be to God;
For his gifts to every nation, thanks be to God;
For the ploughing, sowing, reaping,
Silent growth while we are sleeping,
Future needs in earth's safe-keeping,
Thanks be to God.

2 In the just reward of labour, God's will is done;
In the help we give our neighbour, God's will is done;
In our world-wide task of caring
For the hungry and despairing,
In the harvests we are sharing,
God's will is done.

3 For the harvests of his Spirit, thanks be to God;
For the good we all inherit, thanks be to God;
For the wonders that astound us,
For the truths that still confound us,
Most of all that love has found us,
Thanks be to God.
