Collect for the Week of 16th May

O God the King of glory,
you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless,
but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

NEWS

Moment of Light (in response to last week's Thought for the Week about friendship)

It's very true - Jesus has always, ever since I was a tot, been my best friend spiritually.
In the flesh I have many friends.
Jesus is with me all the time
My friends and family cannot be always be (But they give it a good try!)

Thought for the week John 17: 6-19 Acts 1: 15-17. 21-end

There is – or at least, there used to be – an annual ‘litter pick’ in the Yorkshire village of Wombledon. Naturally! The children dress as Wombles – the Wombles of Wombledon – and there is always a communal lunch. It happens elsewhere too – there are the Wombles of Hambleton, also in Yorkshire. And many others.

The problem in Wombledon is that this annual event is on a Sunday morning, and coincides with the morning service at the church/chapel – which is in the next village (Wombledon no longer has its own church/chapel). So, imagine that you normally – indeed, always – attend the morning service but you also want to join in with the litter pick. What should you do?

You could go to church and forget about the litter pick. That might be the ‘right’ thing to do – the first commandment: Love God. Then love your neighbour and all that follows from that. So, God comes first.

Perhaps it would be better if, before going to church, you give your apologies to the litter pick organisers and offer to do some litter picking at another time? That at least shows that you are genuinely interested and keen – provided, of course, that you do go and do some litter picking at another time.

Or could you, for once, miss going to the service and go to the litter pick instead? God surely wouldn't mind just this once. And, more than that, perhaps being with other members of your community to do the litter pick is a way of showing that the Church – and God – really is interested in the whole community and not just the people inside the building. Perhaps joining in is part of your ‘worship and prayer’ for the community.

Or how about trying to get the whole congregation to join in with the litter pick? You could even start or end with some outdoor worship and prayers for the community.

How do we square Jesus' words 'They do not belong to the world' with 'So I have sent them into the world'? How did Jesus, whose authority did not come from this world, live fully as part of it? Is it significant that, although Jesus clearly taught in the synagogues – the Gospels tell us he did! – almost all the stories in about Jesus, most of his recorded teaching, his parables, his healings and more, happened outside – in and around the community.

So, can an action such as communal litter picking be an act of Christian worship and prayer? And how can we express – or rather, do – something of that nature here in our community?

~Reminder~ Morning Prayer by Zoom – Change of time.

Morning Prayer by Zoom is now at 9 am on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays (previously 9.30am)

~Reminder~ Holy Trinity Church, Stourpaine – New Projects – Have a look!

Holy Trinity Church, has a number of projects under way e.g. repairs to the Lychgate, a drainage project and the provision of an internal toilet and servery, these are subject to faculty approval. There are a number of display boards in the church, with maps, drawings and pictures, beautifully prepared by Judy Jakes which explain why these projects are important and how they will enhance the life and ministry of the Holy Trinity Church. Please do go and have a look and if you have any comments, the PCC would welcome them in writing to Revd Belinda Marflitt.

Hymns for 16th May

- 1 Christ is our corner-stone,
on him alone we build;
with his true saints alone
the courts of heaven are filled;
on his great love
our hopes we place of present grace and joys above.

- 2 Oh then with hymns of praise
these hallowed courts shall ring;
our voices we will raise the Three in One to sing;
and thus proclaim in joyful song,
both loud and long,
that glorious name.

- 3 Here may we gain from heaven
the grace which we implore;
and may that grace, once given,
be with us evermore,
until that day
when all the blest to endless rest are called away.

Urbs beata Jerusalem. Anonymous Latin, John Chandler (1806-1876)

- 1 Bright the vision that delighted once the sight of Judah's seer; sweet the countless tongues united to entrance the prophet's ear.

- 2 Round the Lord in glory seated cherubim and seraphim filled his temple, and repeated each to each the alternate hymn:
- 3 'Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
earth is with its fulness stored;
unto thee be glory given,
holy, holy, holy, Lord.'
- 4 Heaven is still with glory ringing, earth takes up the angels' cry,
'Holy, holy, holy,' singing,
'Lord of hosts, the Lord most high.'
- 5 With his seraph train before him,
with his holy Church below,
thus unite we to adore him,
bid we thus our anthem flow:
- 6 'Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
earth is with its fulness stored;
unto thee be glory given,
holy, holy, holy, Lord.'

Richard Mant (1776-1848)

We seek your kingdom throughout every sphere
We long for heaven's demonstration here
Jesus your light shine bright for all to see
Transform, revive, and heal society

Before all things, in him were all things made Inspiring culture, media, and trade
May all our work serve your economy
Transform, revive, and heal society

Peace, truth, and justice reigning everywhere
With us be present in our public square
Fill all who lead with your integrity
Transform, revive, and heal society

Forgive us Lord, when we have not engaged Failing to scribe your heart on history's page
Make us again what we were made to be
Transform, revive, and heal society

Faithful to govern ever may we be Selfless in service, loving constantly
In everything may your authority
Transform, revive, and heal society

Melody: Eventide (Abide with me) by William Henry Monk (Public Domain) Lyrics: Noel Robinson, Andy Flannagan, Graham Hunter © 2016 Downwardly Mobile Music, Nu Image Music, Graham Hunter

- 1 All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

- 2 God's great goodness ay endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought:
Splendour, light, and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of nought.
Evermore,
From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

3 Daily doth the almighty giver
Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
His desire our soul delighteth,
Pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
At his hand;
Joy doth wait on his command.

4 Still from man to God eternal Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

Meine Hoffnung stehet feste Joachim Neander (1650-1680) paraphrased Robert Bridges (1844-1930)

Gloria (from the Mass of St Thomas)

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Sung by the Choral Scholars of St Martin-in-the-Fields
