Collect for the Week of 20th June

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

NEWS

~New~ Thought for the Week

(Job 38: 1-11 Mark 4: 35-41)

It is interesting that on the Sea of Galilee when Jesus was asleep, the disciples didn't wake him and yell, 'Save us!' but 'do you not care that we are perishing'?

Maybe we know that given the way the world is, difficult things will happen to us and to those we love, and we can't avoid them. We know there is disease, accident, natural disaster, redundancy, failure and more. Our first instinct might be to say: 'Take it away, God!' But we will probably accept that this is not always possible, because that doesn't seem to be how the world works. So, our next urgent question to God might be: 'Don't you care that this is unbelievably hard?'

Job had lived his life as an upstanding clean-living sort of guy. And then he lost his health, wealth and family. His big question to God was not to take all his troubles away. His desire was to be able to have conversation with God again; to move beyond the terrible silence that was between them. He wanted God to hear him in his distress.

In this week's passage, God finally speaks to him. And, although he doesn't get a straight answer, the desire of Job's heart is met. God has heard him and is speaking again to him. And eventually he does get his health, wealth and family back again – with, we might imagine, new appreciation.

All of us at some point in our spiritual journey will have difficult questions to ask of God. There will be shouts, protests, denial. We may know that God can't rescue us. But if our faith is true, we will want assurance that God cares for us in our troubles, that God has heard us!

Knowing we have been heard can make all the difference.

- It can give us strength for the challenges.
- It can give us new ways of opening ourselves up to love and joy.
- It can help us know the really important things in life, and how distracted we have been.
- It can bring us to a new and deeper life.
- We can also know how Jesus in his own life, death and resurrection points us to this Way.

Recall a difficult period in your life. What questions did you have of God? Did you keep on asking, even though at first there only seemed to be silence? Did you eventually find any sort of answer?

- 1 Jesus calls us: o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea day by day his sweet voice soundeth, saying, 'Christian, follow me;'
- 2 As of old Saint Andrew heard it
by the Galilean lake, turned from home and toil and kindred,
leaving all for his dear sake.
- 3 Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store, from each idol that would keep us, saying, 'Christian, love me more.'
- 4 In our joys and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease,
still he calls, in cares and pleasures, that we love him more than these.

Hymns for 20th June

5 Jesus calls us: by thy mercies, Saviour, make us hear thy call,
give our hearts to thine obedience, serve and love thee best of all.

Cecil Frances Alexander (née Humphreys) (1818-1895)

1 Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways;
re-clothe us in our rightful mind;
in purer lives thy service find,
in deeper reverence, praise.

2 In simple trust like theirs who heard beside the Syrian sea
the gracious calling of the Lord, let us, like them, without a word rise up and follow thee.

3 Drop thy still dews of quietness, till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress, and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace.

4 Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind and fire,
O still small voice of calm.

John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)

1 I bind unto myself today
the strong name of the Trinity,
by invocation of the same,
the Three in One, and One in Three.

2 I bind unto myself today
the virtues of the star-lit heaven, the glorious sun's life-giving ray,
the whiteness of the moon at even,
the flashing of the lightning free,
the whirling wind's tempestuous shocks,
the stable earth, the deep salt sea,
around the old eternal rocks.

3 I bind unto myself today
the power of God to hold and lead, his eye to watch, his might to stay,
his ear to hearken to my need the wisdom of my God to teach,
his hand to guide, his shield to ward,
the word of God to give me speech,
his heav'nly host to be my guard.

4 Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

5 I bind unto myself the name,
the strong name of the Trinity,
by invocation of the same,
the Three in One, and One in Three,
of whom all nature has creation, eternal Father, Spirit, Word.
Praise to the Lord of my salvation:
salvation is of Christ the Lord.

Patrick of Ireland (attributed) (c386-c460), Cecil Frances Alexander (née Humphreys) (1818-1895)

- 1 O for a thousand tongues to sing
my dear Redeemer's praise,
the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of his grace.
- 2 Jesus - the name that charms our fears, that bids our sorrows cease;
'tis music in the sinner's ears,
'tis life, and health, and peace.
- 3 He speaks; and, listening to his voice,
new life the dead receive;
the mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
the humble poor believe.
- 4 My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim and spread through all the earth abroad
the honours of thy name.

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Gloria (from the Mass of St Thomas)

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest.
