Collect for the Week of 19th September

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you;
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do,
and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Readings for Sunday 19th September 2021

Reminder ~ from this week, only the Sunday readings will be provided here. The weekday readings (Mon-Sat) can be obtained online – please email barrytorr48@gmail.com if you would like details of how to do this.

Wisdom 1.16-2.1, 12-22

<sup>16</sup> But the ungodly by their words and deeds summoned death; considering him a friend, they pined away and made a covenant with him, because they are fit to belong to his company.

2 For they reasoned unsoundly, saying to themselves, 'Short and sorrowful is our life, and there is no remedy when a life comes to its end, and no one has been known to return from Hades. <sup>12</sup> 'Let us lie in wait for the righteous man, because he is inconvenient to us and opposes our actions; he reproaches us for sins against the law, and accuses us of sins against our training. <sup>13</sup> He professes to have knowledge of God, and calls himself a child of the Lord. <sup>14</sup> He became to us a reproof of our thoughts; <sup>15</sup> the very sight of him is a burden to us, because his manner of life is unlike that of others, and his ways are strange. <sup>16</sup> We are considered by him as something base, and he avoids our ways as unclean; he calls the last end of the righteous happy, and boasts that God is his father. <sup>17</sup> Let us see if his words are true, and let us test what will happen at the end of his life; <sup>18</sup> for if the righteous man is God's child, he will help him, and will deliver him from the hand of his adversaries. <sup>19</sup> Let us test him with insult and torture, so that we may find out how gentle he is, and make trial of his forbearance. <sup>20</sup> Let us condemn him to a shameful death, for, according to what he says, he will be protected.'

<sup>21</sup> Thus they reasoned, but they were led astray, for their wickedness blinded them, <sup>22</sup> and they did not know the secret purposes of God, nor hoped for the wages of holiness, nor discerned the prize for blameless souls;

Mark 9.30-37

<sup>30</sup> They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; <sup>31</sup> for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' <sup>32</sup> But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' <sup>34</sup> But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. <sup>35</sup> He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' <sup>36</sup> Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup> 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'
