Collect for the Week

Bible Sunday

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly
digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort
of your holy word,

we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour
Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Sunday's Readings

The weekday readings (Mon-Sat) can be obtained online – please email barrytorr48@gmail.com if you would like details of how to do this.

Bible Sunday

Isaiah 55.1-11

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you. Seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

John 5.36b-end

But I have a testimony greater than John's. The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me. And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form, and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent.

You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf. Yet you refuse to come to me to have life. I do not accept glory from human beings. But I know that you do not have the love of God in you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him. How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God? Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?'

Notices

Please bring a face mask with you to all events, so that it can be used if asked to do so.

New ~ Holy Trinity Church

Our beautiful church in the village of Stourpaine is much loved and we're asking for your help in raising awareness of the work and helping us to raise funds for the major repairs that are being done to the church roof, Lychgate and damp on the South East wall. It's been a huge shock to us that these repairs are totalling £137,500.00.

Our church will be closed for services, except for the 10am Communion on Wednesdays and the 8am Holy Communion on the first Sunday of each month, both will be held in the chancel entry through the Priest's Door, for at least the next three months. We have begun fundraising and have set up a Facebook page and Twitter feed and would really be grateful if you could like and follow us so that your friends also get to find out about our project.

All Saints and All Souls 31st October

All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day have been observed for most of the Church's history. On All Saints' Day (1st November) we remember all those saints who left a name and whose work everyone knows something about: St Peter, St Frances and also those saints in our community, long since gone who contributed to the life and work of the Church. Then on All Souls' Day we remember the 'faithfully departed':

those who we have loved and lost, not just this year, but in times past. This year we will commemorate both, on Sunday 31st October.

All Saints' at All Saints' Church, Tarrant Monkton at 10.00am. This will be a Benefice service for all six Churches in our group.

A service for All Souls' will be held in the evening at St Peter's Church, Pimperne at 6.00pm
