Collect for the Week

Eternal Father,
whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven
that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit
and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sunday's Readings

The weekday readings (Mon-Sat) can be obtained online – please email barrytorr48@gmail.com if you would like details of how to do this.

Christ the King

Daniel 7.9-10, 13, 14

As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousand served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him. To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

John 18.33-37

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, 'Are you the King of the Jews?'

Jesus answered, 'Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?'

Pilate replied, 'I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?'

Jesus answered, 'My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.'

Pilate asked him, 'So you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.'

Notices

Please bring a face mask with you to all events, so that it can be used if asked to do so.

Fundraising for Holy Trinity Stourpaine

It's been a huge shock to us that these repairs are totalling £137,500.00.

We need your help with raising funds for the project. Any amount you are able to donate will make an enormous difference, whether you would like to be publicly acknowledged or do so anonymously. We now have a Text to system, details are below:

Text HTCHURCH to 70085 to donate £5

Text HTCHURCHTEN to 70085 to donate £10

Texts will cost the donation amount plus one standard network rate message.

We are also using EasyFundRaising <https://www.easypundraising.org.uk> where you can support Holy Trinity Church – Stourpaine when you buy online. Companies donate a percentage of the amount that you spend online towards the repairs for our church. Please contact Judy on dpsbenefice@gmail.com if you have any questions.

If you would prefer to pay directly into the bank account then please contact dpsbenefice@gmail.com for the bank details.

New ~ Request for greenery for St Peter's, Pimperne for Tuesday 23rd November.

Please could you put any Holly, Rosemary, Bay, Ivy or Christmas tree fir in the church porch. Thank you, Janet Parker.

New ~ Fixing St Peter's!

As you probably know, Pimperne church has much remedial work to do to the building following our last two Quinquennial Reports. At one stage, costs of around £50,000 were estimated; this figure may now have risen.

Fundraising events could not take place during the pandemic, but now they have re-started in earnest and we have some big 'thank yous' to make. The Concert on 25 Sept raised £865, with many thanks to the performers who donated their services and to Mary and the organising team. Thank you to Carole Beckford, who has raised £350 so far this year by the sale of her hand-knitted toys. The Cake and produce sale raised £282, with thanks to Mary and the team. And the Autumn Fair and Quiz Night raised £746; thank you, Jackie Vacher and team!

If I have missed anyone out, please let me know!
