Collect for the Week

Almighty God,
in Christ you make all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace,
and in the renewal of our lives
make known your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sunday's Readings

The weekday readings (Mon-Sat) can be obtained online – please email barrytorr48@gmail.com if you would like details of how to do this.

Isaiah 62.1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

John 2.1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

NOTICES

New~ A Wonderful Christmas and St Nicholas, Durweston

After a very successful Christmas Concert which was enjoyed by about 80 people, our Midnight Mass went off without a hitch, mindful of Covid advice, and the Archdeacon of Dorset presided over a congregation of over 60. The choir, led by Rachel, created a very special Christmas atmosphere.
Michael Joseph

Special thanks to Jules Hosford, Emma Corry and the team of ladies from Durweston Village decorating St Nicholas Church this year, Fran Rough and her team at Holy Trinity and Janet Parker and her team. All three Churches looked lovely.

Revd Belinda

New~ Printing for the Benefice

Printing is now being done by Louise who works on a Tuesday and Wednesday morning from 9.30am – 1.30pm. Please get any requests in to her (office@psdbenefice.org.uk) in good time to allow for her to complete them in her working hours.

Sunday 20th March 2022 at St Nicholas, Durweston

Come and join in Stainer's "Crucifixion"

15:00: Registration and distribution of music

15:30: Afternoon rehearsal for singers (experience not essential)

17:00: Tea

18:00: Performance in place of Evening Service. All are invited.

No charge for singers and no charge for admission to the performance.

Retiring collection at the end of the performance.

Stainer's "Crucifixion" is very much a Service as opposed to a performance and would provide a powerful start to the approach to Passiontide.

New~ Folk Concert by the unique acoustic duo Wildwood Jack

Saturday 19th March at 7.30pm (doors open at 7pm) at Stourpaine Village Hall, in aid of Holy Trinity Church Roof Fund.

Come and be enchanted by an evening with this country's most travelled troubadours. Wildwood Jack are a totally unique acoustic guitar and ukulele duo from Kent. Having sold their home in 2013 to hit the road and tour the world they bring a heart-warming and adventurous spirit to their music and to audiences wherever they play. The quality of their musicianship together with songs that sparkle with the journeys of life on the road will be sure to uplift you.

"Contemporary folk music with a twist of bluegrass and world music played with outstanding acoustic guitar and ukulele."

"This is an accomplished duo. Not only is the musicianship excellent, the vocal delivery is spot on" Frank Hennessy BBC RADIO WALES
