Collect for the Week

Almighty God,
you show to those who are in error the light of your truth,
that they may return to the way of righteousness:
grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same;
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sunday's Readings

Genesis 15.1-12, 17-18

After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' But Abram said, 'O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' But the word of the Lord came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Then he said to him, 'I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.' But he said, 'O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?' He said to him, 'Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.' He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire-pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates.'

Luke 13.31-end

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, 'Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.' He said to them, 'Go and tell that fox for me, "Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed away from Jerusalem." Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when* you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord." '

NOTICES

New~ Posies for Mothering Sunday.

Please join us on Saturday 26th March at 2pm to make posies for Mothering Sunday Service (9.15am 27th March). If dry we will make the posies outside the Ryland Room. We would like lots of greenery please and some flowers from your garden (or spray carnations/daffodils anything modest). Please leave these in buckets in the porch. Everyone welcome to help with this.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Wildwood Jack concert Sat 19 March 7.30pm in Stourpaine Village Hall - in aid of Holy Trinity Stourpaine church roof

On Saturday 19 March at 7.30pm we have a folk concert by Wildwood Jack in Stourpaine village hall. We first met Jayne and Adam when they did a housesit for us, spending their time looking after our animals and writing songs. They sold their house in 2013 to make a living on the road and have toured the UK and abroad in Denmark, Germany, Italy and New Zealand. We have seen them in concert twice, their music is very gentle with excellent musicianship and we can guarantee a relaxed, chilled evening. They have been described as: 'Contemporary folk music with a twist of bluegrass and world music played with outstanding acoustic guitar and ukulele'.

Book your £10 place in advance by contacting either of us, Peter or Caroline Jones, and paying in cash or by cheque, or we can give you bank details. You can turn up on the door, but we'd love to know numbers in advance so we know how much drink to buy!

Beer, wine and soft drinks will be on sale. All profits will go towards Holy Trinity Church roof fund.

Have a look at www.wildwoodjack.com and listen to some of their music. Do come along. It promises to be an excellent evening.

Wildwood Jack - Inventive Acoustic Folk & Roots

'This is an accomplished duo. Not only is the musicianship excellent, the vocal delivery is spot on'

Sunday 20th March 2022 at St Nicholas, Durweston

Come and join in Stainer's "Crucifixion"

15:00: Registration and distribution of music

15:30: Afternoon rehearsal for singers (experience not essential)

17:00: Tea

18:00: Performance in place of Evening Service. All are invited.

Singers for all parts welcome. Non-singers are invited to come and enjoy the performance.

There will be no charge for admission but there will be a hire fee of £1 for the music if you haven't got your own copy.

You can just turn up on the day but it would help us to know roughly how many people we might expect, and who has their own copy of the vocal score.

Please email christopher@joyofmusic.co.uk if you intend to join us.

Stainer's "Crucifixion" is very much a Service as opposed to a performance and would provide a powerful start to the approach to Passiontide.
