Collect for the Week

God, who as at this time
taught the hearts of your faithful people
by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit:
grant us by the same Spirit
to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort;
through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sunday's Readings

Acts 2.1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

John 14.8-17

Philip said to him, ‘Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied. Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

NOTICES

New~ Craft Club, Pimperne School

We have been asked by the school if we could consider starting up the After School Craft Club again. Would you be interested in helping with this? We need a team of 3 to 4 people to make this work. We offer the children refreshments whilst we read a Bible story; followed by a craft activity. The session lasts for an hour between 3 and 4 pm (day tbc) but we also have to prepare the craft, set up on the day and clear up afterwards. The children love it and have really missed this over the last 2 years. The school value this link with the church - the club ran for 12 years until we had to stop in March 2020. Please let me know if you would like to help with this in any way.

Many thanks, Jacqui Torrance.

New~ Welcome to Bishop Stephen

The Dean, Bishop Andrew and I offer a warm welcome to clergy, churchwardens, lay leaders and parish groups from across the diocese to this special service on Sunday 19th June at 3pm in the Cathedral. Bring a guest and bring friends.

Everyone is welcome to come and join in the enthronement of the 79th Bishop of Salisbury. There is no need to book.

Bishop Stephen writes: 'I am looking forward to the final stage of the process of arriving, which in itself is a beginning! I am grateful for all the support we have received and look forward to this being a moment for the whole diocese, not just its bishop.'

Let us make this afternoon a moment of celebration as we gather as a diocese from our rural, market town, coastal and urban parishes, east, west, north and south, to welcome our new bishop and be enthused for the next stage of the journey God is taking us on. Do share cars, book minibuses, or use public transport to gather in Salisbury for this service which will mark the formal start of Bishop Stephen's ministry amongst us.

I look forward to seeing you on that day, Bishop Karen

Visit to Ravenna, Monday 17th - Saturday April 2023

Following on from our Pilgrimage to Rome in 2019, we are planning a trip to Ravenna. This small town was for a while the capital of the Roman Empire in the west, it was the seat of the Ostrogoth, Theodoric, and then became part of the Byzantine Empire. It is in Ravenna that we can see the development of the Christian faith and how various heresies led to it having two Cathedrals. Ravenna's surviving collection of early Christian churches and mosaics been described as without parallel in Christendom. We will be able to see how those Christians showed their faith in those churches and their decoration.

If you are interested in joining us please contact me Penny Wallis, my email is: pennywallis@durweston.org.uk
