Collect for the Week

Almighty Lord and everlasting God,
we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments;
that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever,
we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sunday's Readings

Genesis 15.1-6

After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' But Abram said, 'O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' But the word of the Lord came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Luke 12.32-40

'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

Psalm 33.12-end

12 Happy the nation whose God is the Lord •
and the people he has chosen for his own.

13 The Lord looks down from heaven •
and beholds all the children of earth.

14 From where he sits enthroned he turns his gaze •
on all who dwell on the earth.

15 He fashions all the hearts of them •
and understands all their works.

16 No king is saved by the might of his host; •
no warrior delivered by his great strength.

17 A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; •
for all its strength it cannot save.

18 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon those who fear him, •
on those who wait in hope for his steadfast love,

19 To deliver their soul from death •
and to feed them in time of famine.

20 Our soul waits longingly for the Lord; •
he is our help and our shield.

21 Indeed, our heart rejoices in him; •
in his holy name have we put our trust.

22 Let your loving-kindness, O Lord, be upon us, •
as we have set our hope on you

NOTICES

New~ Thought for August

The Summer Holidays are truly with us. The weather has been fantastic, unless one is a farmer or gardener, lots of Sun, bit too hot at times, but not very much rain, if any, for some. This is all a reminder of two crises that are hitting us at this time. Firstly, the Climate Emergency, hotter weather and when the rain comes, heavy, and causing floods, and secondly, the Cost of Living crisis that is hitting many very hard. Both of these issues are likely to get worse, unless something is done now. For many whatever we do seems so little against the bigger picture and we look to the government to do their part, but the saying that 'it is the little things that count' comes to mind. What we do may appear insignificant, but if we all do something it adds up. Providing food to the food banks where we can, using energy slightly more efficiently, walking or taking the bus (where they are running) rather than using a car, all helps in their own small way.

Jesus put people first, 'suffer little children to come unto me' is a well-known verse from the Bible, which sums up how he welcomed everyone. The commandment, 'Love your neighbour as yourself' is another verse that springs to mind. If we try and put others first, meeting their needs, as well as our own, together we can meet these crises and come out the other side stronger together.
