Collect for the Week

Eternal Father,
whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit
and in the bond of peace,
and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Sunday's Readings

Jeremiah 23.1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. ²Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. ³Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Luke 23.33-43

³³When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus* there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[³⁴Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.']]* And they cast lots to divide his clothing. ³⁵And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah* of God, his chosen one!' ³⁶The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, ³⁷and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' ³⁸There was also an inscription over him,* 'This is the King of the Jews.'

³⁹One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding* him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah?* Save yourself and us!' ⁴⁰But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?' ⁴¹And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' ⁴²Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into* your kingdom.' ⁴³He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

NOTICES

St Peter's Church '100' Club

This has been a particularly successful year for our '100' Club with one hundred and one people signing up, this meant that in January 2022 the Club was able to donate £750 to the Church repair fund. The rest of the money was given out at the Coffee mornings held in the Village Hall on the third Saturday of each month.

During this year the first prize was been £30 and the second prize £15. Because we had such a wonderful response it meant that last Christmas we were able to give out extra prizes of £100, £50 and £25, and we very much hope to be able to do the same for Christmas 2022. If you have not already renewed your subscription please contact either Carole on 01258 721318 or Anne on 01258 456553. We have extended the deadline until 26th November when the first draw will be made at the Pimperne Village coffee morning.

The Old Powerhouse, Bryanston

A fab night was held, a first for The Old Powerhouse, Bryanston. Wessex Acoustic hosted a line up including Les Wild, Dave Pegg, Anthony Clarke, and Julia Porter. Great music, lots of laughs, and a joy to have in our company.

Durweston School has joined Diocese of Salisbury Academy Trust (DSAT)

Mark Lacey, their Chief Executive Officer, spoke to the school in St Nicholas Church on November 9th 2022, he was very impressed with the demeanour of the children and had never before had bells rung for an assembly. The school now has a new badge to reflect that we are a member of DSAT, one of 24 schools in the group. All of the schools have a church window logo.
