Collect for the 3rd September Week

Almighty God,
who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself:
help us to proclaim the good news of your love,
that all who hear it may be drawn to you;
through him who was lifted up on the cross,
and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Sunday's Readings

Romans 12.9-end

Marks of the True Christian

9 Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; ¹⁰love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. ¹¹Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.* ¹²Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. ¹³Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. ¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly;* do not claim to be wiser than you are. ¹⁷Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. ¹⁸If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. ¹⁹Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God;* for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' ²⁰No, 'if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.' ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Matthew 16.21-end

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

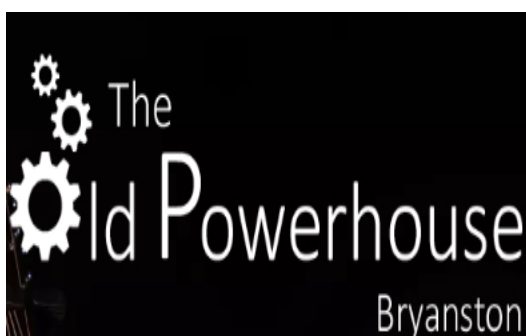

21 From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. ²²And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' ²³But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

24 Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ²⁵For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. ²⁶For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

27 'For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. ²⁸Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.'

New film: Jesus Revolution (12A) showing at the Tivoli Wimborne

Monday 11 and Tues 12 September at 7.30pm

Matinee Tues 12 September at 2.30pm

'Jesus Revolution' review: Emotionally powerful film highlights how God uses broken people to bring revival

Based on a true story, starring
Kelsey Grammer

The Jesus Movement was one of the most pivotal events of the 20th century, leaving an undeniable imprint on culture, music and most notably, the Church and evangelism. But it hasn't been at the forefront of film and movies – until now.

"Jesus Revolution," tells the true story of the revival that began in hippie communities on the West Coast in the late 1960s, eventually spreading across the country and bringing millions of souls to Christ.

Starring Kelsey Grammer ("Frasier"), Jonathan Roumie ("The Chosen") and Joel Courtney ("The Kissing Booth") and directed by Jon Erwin ("I Can Only Imagine") and Brent McCorkle ("Unconditional"), "Jesus Revolution" isn't preachy or political; it doesn't rely on genre tropes to carry the story. Rather, it's a tender, heartfelt and sometimes humorous look at the complicated figures behind the Jesus Movement and how a revival was sparked among the most unlikely of people groups, paving the way for many churches and Christian music today.

An invitation to all in Dorset Archdeaconry

I heard this film being reviewed very positively on Hope FM and I was curious to hear there was a new film about Jesus, starring Kelsey Grammer. I thought it would be nice to see it with friends from church, so I asked the Tivoli if they would show it. It is a good opportunity to come together as churches to take advantage of a night at the pictures. I hope you will join us! Anna, St Mark's West Parley

Tickets cost just £8 and are booked direct from the Tivoli. There are no group booking discounts because the Tivoli is also a charity. To buy tickets scan this QR code or go to:
