Collect for the 8th September Week

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love:
grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel
that, always abiding in you,
they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

James 2.1-10 [11-13] 14-17

Warning against Partiality

2My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favouritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? ²For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, ³and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, 'Have a seat here, please', while to the one who is poor you say, 'Stand there', or, 'Sit at my feet', ⁴have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? ⁶But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? ⁷Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

8 You do well if you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' ⁹But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [¹¹For the one who said, 'You shall not commit adultery', also said, 'You shall not murder.' Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. ¹³For judgement will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgement.]

14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? ¹⁵If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, ¹⁶and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill', and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? ¹⁷So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Gospel

Mark 7.24-end

The Syrophenician Woman's Faith

24 From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, ²⁵but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷He said to her, 'Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' ²⁸But she answered him, 'Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.' ²⁹Then he said to her, 'For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter.’ ³⁰So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Jesus Cures a Deaf Man

31 Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. ³²They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. ³³He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. ³⁴Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, ‘Ephphatha’, that is, ‘Be opened.’ ³⁵And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. ³⁶Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. ³⁷They were astounded beyond measure, saying, ‘He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.’

Outreach Post Offices in our Villages

POST OFFICE

POST OFFICE

Please use the Pop-up Post Offices in Stourpaine and Pimperne. The old saying is true "Use it or Loose it"! As some of you may be aware the Post Office is contemplating closing outreach Post Offices and as Stourpaine and Pimperne Pop up Post Offices are in danger of being lost, we are being asked to encourage more people to use these facilities. We need to do everything we can to keep our Post Office's. You can do almost everything at the pop up post office's that you can do at the main post office so please help us to keep this facility. Cash can be withdrawn, parcels posted etc. There are coffee/tea and biscuits available too so why not come and enjoy a social hour or two.

The Stourpaine Post Office is at Stourpaine Village Hall on Tuesday mornings from 09:30 to 12.30 and coffee is served from 10.00am to 12.00pm.

The Pimperne Post Office is in Pimperne Village Hall on Friday mornings from 09.30 to 12.30 and coffee is served from 10.00am to 12.00pm.

'Team Stourpaine', a team of walkers and cyclists from our village, will be attempting to visit as many churches as they can during September. The money they raise through sponsorship will help us to make essential repairs to our village church, ensuring that it remains watertight and in good condition for us all.

If you would like to be involved in this challenge and explore many of the lovely churches in the surrounding villages, the National day is held on Saturday 14th September. Churches are open for you to look around and explore their history, and most will have a welcome team eager to offer you free refreshments. There are some extremely beautiful and interesting churches nearby, and you do not need to be a member of the church to take part. For further information please contact fran.rough@live.com

To sponsor 'Team Stourpaine', please use our Just Giving page using the link below, every penny we raise will be an amazing help, thank you.
