Collect for the Week

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world:
grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross
we may triumph in the power of his victory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sunday's Readings

The weekday readings (Mon-Sat) can be obtained online – please email barrytorr48@gmail.com if you would like details of how to do this.

Isaiah 43.16-21

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

John 12.1-8

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

New~ Hello from Henriët Miell

My name is Henriët and as some of you know the Archdeacon has asked me to assist with services and pastoral work in Pimperne, Stourpaine and Durweston from the beginning of April.

A little bit about myself. I was ordained in June 1992 and I have worked in Sweden and in England. I am married to David who is Assistant Rural Dean and we live in Tarrant Hinton Rectory.

In my spare time I am a keen potter and make stoneware and earthenware pottery, mainly things you can use in the kitchen.

I look forward very much to meeting you and you can contact me anytime on 07484675097 or at henrietmiell@gmail.com

New~ Midweek Zoom Services are changing

From next Monday (4th April) it has been decided that Morning Prayer via Zoom will be delivered on Mondays and Fridays at 9am, rather than on Wednesday as there is a midweek Communion Service at Stourpaine at 10am. Compline will remain at 8pm on Thursdays. No Zoom Services will be held on Bank Holidays.

The Services used for Morning Prayer come from the Common Worship: Daily Prayer book and for 'ordinary time' have been reproduced and uploaded to the Benefice Website under the 'Services' tab. Other material from the Daily Prayer book will be used by leaders through the seasons and if you wish you can buy either the Daily Prayer App from your favourite App Store or in hardcopy from Church House Publishing or from any on-line or High Street bookshop. If you wish to join in the Morning Prayer please let either Martin (m.richley@me.com) or Barry (barrytorr48@gmail.com) so that you can be added to the invite list. If you have never used zoom before and would like some instruction, then also contact Martin or Barry.

New~ PSD Music update from Chris Dowie

Many thanks to all of you who have supported the various musical events I have organised in the Benefice. The Soirées seemed to be much enjoyed by those present and each one raised a small amount for the venue church. The "Come and Sing Stainer's 'Crucifixion'" was attended by around 25 singers who learnt the music in the afternoon and there were about 15/20 people in the congregation for the performance. This is certainly something I would like to do again.

As the result of a Retiring Collection we were able to give £150 to St.Nicholas Church to pass on to the Ukraine Humanitarian Fund.

Sadly we had to postpone the Soirée in January due to the arrival of Omicron but we have rescheduled that programme to Sunday May 8th at 7.15 at St.Peter's, when Paul Heaslip, Tenor, will be singing some delightful English music including Gerald Finzi's "Dies Natalis" and songs by Ivor Gurney.

The Soirée season will conclude on Sunday June 19th at 7.15 at Holy Trinity with a performance by the Parry String Quartet joined by Sara Cronin, Flute. The programme consists of the Mozart String Quartet in D and a Haydn Flute Quartet.

There is also a celebration of the anniversary of the installation of the organ in Holy Trinity, Stourpaine in July. Watch this space for the date!
