Collect for the Week

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants;
and that they may obtain their petitions
make them to ask such things as shall please you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sunday's Readings

Isaiah 58.9b-end

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the Lord honourable; if you honour it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; then you shall take delight in the Lord, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Luke 13.10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Fundraising with Art

You are warmly invited to take part in our latest fund raiser initiative to support a refugee family from a UN Refugee camp to come to live and settle in Blandford.

We have invited artists (professional and amateur) to donate paintings and works of art to be shown at a special Art Exhibition which will be held at St Nicholas' Church, Durweston on Saturday October 8th starting at 7.00pm. During the evening each ticket holder will pick a number from a lucky dip. That number will correspond with the same number on one of the works of art, which will be theirs to take home.

Tickets are £30 each and the number of tickets is limited to the number of paintings and works of art displayed. You can buy yours online now from <https://blandfordwelcome.group/> or from any member of the Blandford Welcome Group.

Donors, ticket holders and friends are all invited to support this exciting fundraiser.

The result will be a good social evening, raising money to support a refugee family, and being able to take home a beautiful piece of art.

The art work is amazing and really beautifully executed. We have been given some work that is extremely expensive to buy, so some of the ticket holders will be remarkably lucky to take home such collectable and beautiful pieces including pottery. There are a limited number of tickets so first come first served.
