Collect for the 30th July Week

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments;
that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever,
we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Sunday's Readings

Romans 8.26-end

26 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes* with sighs too deep for words. <sup>27</sup>And God,* who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit* intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.*

28 We know that all things work together for good* for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup>For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family.* <sup>30</sup>And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified. 31 What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? <sup>32</sup>He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? <sup>33</sup>Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup>Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.* <sup>35</sup>Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup>As it is written, 'For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.'

<sup>37</sup>No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Matthew 13.31-33, 44-52

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

31 He put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup>it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.'

33 He told them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with* three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.' 44 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. 45 'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; <sup>46</sup>on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. 47 'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; <sup>48</sup>when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. <sup>49</sup>So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous <sup>50</sup>and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 51 'Have you understood all this?' They answered, 'Yes.' <sup>52</sup>And he said to them, 'Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.'

New film: Jesus Revolution (12A) showing at the Tivoli Wimborne

Monday 11 and Tues 12 September at 7.30pm

Matinee Tues 12 September at 2.30pm

'Jesus Revolution' review: Emotionally powerful film highlights how God uses broken people to bring revival

Based on a true story, starring Kelsey Grammer

The Jesus Movement was one of the most pivotal events of the 20th century, leaving an undeniable imprint on culture, music and most notably, the Church and evangelism. But it hasn't been at the forefront of film and movies – until now.

"Jesus Revolution," tells the true story of the revival that began in hippie communities on the West Coast in the late 1960s, eventually spreading across the country and bringing millions of souls to Christ.

Starring Kelsey Grammer ("Frasier"), Jonathan Roumie ("The Chosen") and Joel Courtney ("The Kissing Booth") and directed by Jon Erwin ("I Can Only Imagine") and Brent McCorkle ("Unconditional"), "Jesus Revolution" isn't preachy or political; it doesn't rely on genre tropes to carry the story. Rather, it's a tender, heartfelt and sometimes humorous look at the complicated figures behind the Jesus Movement and how a revival was sparked among the most unlikely of people groups, paving the way for many churches and Christian music today.

An invitation to all in Dorset Archdeaconry

I heard this film being reviewed very positively on Hope FM and I was curious to hear there was a new film about Jesus, starring Kelsey Grammer. I thought it would be nice to see it with friends from church, so I asked the Tivoli if they would show it. It is a good opportunity to come together as churches to take advantage of a night at the pictures. I hope you will join us! Anna, St Mark's West Parley

Tickets cost just £8 and are booked direct from the Tivoli. There are no group booking discounts because the Tivoli is also a charity. To buy tickets scan this QR code or go to: www.tivoliwimborne.co.uk/event/jesus-revolution/

Milton and Blandford Deanery Lay Pastoral Assistant (LPA) Training Course 2023

God calls every baptised Christian to ministry, and equips them to work together with others as the Body of Christ. This is about much more than their involvement within and around the church buildings or activities. It's about what they do and what they are as Christians, seven days a week.

LPAs are trained and authorised to engage in pastoral ministry on behalf of the local church, working as part of a team of clergy and laity. They may work with children and young people, the sick, the recently bereaved and the elderly and housebound. They may take communion to those unable to come to church. Many benefices have teams of LPAs, some of whom specialise in a particular area. All LPAs focus on pastoral care, but an individual's ministry varies according to their gifts and skills, and the local situation. In all cases the ministry calls for a loving and compassionate heart, and a willingness to listen and support those in need.

Milton and Blandford Deanery are running an authorised diocesan course to train new LPAs this Autumn at Shroton church, beginning with a taster session on 21st September 2023, which your parish priest will attend, followed by ten fortnightly sessions, all running from 7pm to 9pm.

If you feel you have a calling to this ministry, please speak to your parish priest, who will discern and affirm whether this is the right vocational path for you.

Candidates will then need to complete a registration form by 31st August.
